

What do the new no-match rules mean for immigrant workers?

Fight Back Against No-Match Firings and Workplace Raids!

Homeland Security is attempting to implement new regulations regarding Social Security "No-Match" letters. The new rules would commandeer our social security benefits system for immigration enforcement purposes, encourage employers to over-react and fire workers they suspect are undocumented, and increase harassment and intimidation of immigrant workers. This in addition to the raids!

Come to a forum for workers and organizers to learn your rights and help strategize about how to beat back this latest attack on immigrant communities!
