About the Federal Bar Association (FBA): The FBA is dedicated to the advancement of the science of jurisprudence and to promoting the welfare, interests, education, and professional development of all attorneys involved in federal law. Its members run the gamut of federal practice: attorneys practicing in small to large legal firms, attorneys in corporations and federal agencies, and members of the judiciary. The FBA is the catalyst for communication between the bar and the bench, as well as the private and public sectors. To Join the FBA, please go to www.fedbar.org and click on "join the FBA".

John Kramar
District Director, District 21 San Francisco
U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services
U.S. Department of Homeland Security

John Kramar became the San Francisco District Director on March 10, 2014. The district serves 16 Northern California counties, from Monterey County in the south to Del Norte County in the north, and has two field offices located in San Francisco and Santa Clara. Before joining the San Francisco District Office, Kramar primarily directed Districts in the Western Region, including Districts 25 in Phoenix and 26 in Honolulu. He has also served temporary duty assignments in the west, including acting district director in Denver, Colorado, and interim deputy director of the California Service Center in Laguna Niguel.

Director Kramar joined the Los Angeles Asylum Office in 1992, under the Immigration and Naturalization Service, as an Asylum Officer, and adjudicated naturalization cases with the Los Angeles District Office. He served as the Deputy and Acting Director of the Arlington Virginia Asylum Office from April 2003 to October 2006.

Director Kramar is a third generation Californian, graduating from the University of California, Hastings College of Law, in San Francisco in 1991. He is a member of the California Bar Association. He earned his bachelor's degree in history, political science, and mathematics from Vanguard University in California, and was awarded a graduate certificate in global migration from the Georgetown University in 2012. He was elected the San Francisco Federal Executive Board Chair in 2015 and works collaboratively with Bay Area agencies.
