LAW OFFICES OF FELLOM & SOLORIO

Fellom & Solorio seeks an associate attorney with at least two (2) years' experience handling the following types of immigration cases: family-based petitions, waivers, consular processing, adjustment of status, naturalization, asylum & removal defense. Please note we do not take on business immigration cases. The candidate must be fluent and literate in Spanish and have excellent communication skills. This position requires the ability to interface with clients from a variety of backgrounds and to advocate on their behalf before DHS, the Immigration Court and various consulates throughout the world. A qualified applicant must be admitted to the Bar and be able to provide professional references familiar with the applicant's relevant experience.

Salary commensurate with experience. A generous benefits package is provided.

Please provide a list of references with your resume to the attention of partner Nancy Fellom at: nancy@fellomandsolorio.com.