

Legal Program Associate

ABOUT THE CENTER FOR GENDER & REFUGEE STUDIES

The Center for Gender & Refugee Studies \(CGRS\) defends the human rights of refugees seeking asylum in the United States. With strategic focus and unparalleled legal expertise, CGRS champions the most challenging cases, fights for due process, and promotes policies that deliver safety and justice for refugees. We are the trusted partner and proven resource for legal services providers and human rights organizations and bring invaluable data and compelling personal stories to shape the public narrative. We use strategic litigation to advance sound asylum laws and protect due process rights. Through policy advocacy and education, we provide critical expertise to policymakers at all levels of government, leading the movement to honor our commitments to refugees and asylum seekers under U.S. and international law. Through technical assistance and training, we empower advocates to take on complex asylum cases, providing them with the tools they need to craft winning arguments and secure protections for their clients. CGRS is committed to building an anti-racist and anti-oppression organization that lives its values internally and externally.

THE ROLE AND RESPONSIBILITIES

CGRS is seeking a highly motivated individual passionate about refugee rights and ready to participate in all CGRS core program areas. The position is based in San Francisco, California and the work includes both national and California-focused matters. The position is dynamic and reflects the vision and flexibility of the organization in the changing landscape of attacks on refugee rights.

The Legal Program Associate will work under the direct supervision of a member of the CGRS Leadership Team but will provide support in various capacities to all CGRS programs. This role will primarily support CGRS's Litigation and Training & Technical Assistance Programs.

The Legal Program Associate will be responsible for the following:

- Manage CGRS's country conditions research program, helping to produce 25+ research reports yearly to support attorneys and advocates working on individual asylum cases and the CGRS Technical Assistance Program.
- Coordinate CGRS's intern and volunteer programs, including hiring, project management, and weekly supervision.
- Provide paralegal-type support to CGRS attorneys litigating individual asylum cases as well as systemic challenges brought in federal court.
- Support relationships with CGRS direct representation clients and individual named plaintiffs in impact litigation.
- Share in frontline technical assistance duties with fellow support staff including asylum case data maintenance and analysis.
- Provide translation and interpretation support to team on an as-needed basis.

- Assist in the development of technical assistance and training and other public advocacy materials, including research, proofreading, and design of presentations, advisories, and other materials under the supervision of CGRS attorneys and in collaboration with other legal program associates.
- Coordinate and otherwise support the production of webinars and in-person training opportunities.
- Participate in public outreach, training promotions, webinars, and other events, and provide support with all technology and other logistics involved in these presentations.
- Liaise between legal program staff and development staff, including providing information to comply with grant reporting.
- Provide other general program support on an as-needed basis.
