Make a difference in our community by bringing your legal experience and bilingual skills to the Sonoma County Public Defender's Office!

Starting salary up to $95.37/hour* PLUS, an additional $1.50/hour on top of the hourly pay rate for fluent bilingual positions!

NOTE: The Public Defender's Office is currently recruiting to fill an Bilingual Removal Defense Attorney (English/Spanish) - Extra-Help position at either the II or III level. If you are interested in applying at the II level, you will need to apply to the separate, concurrent recruitment being conducted.

About the Position

This bilingual, extra-help Removal Defense Attorney III will work with clients in removal proceedings in immigration courts. Most clients of the extra-help Removal Defense Attorney III will be charged or convicted of juvenile, misdemeanor, and/or felony offenses. This attorney will work primarily with Spanish-speaking clients but will also have clients who speak various other languages and come from many different cultures. The ideal candidate will possess rich cultural awareness and will effectively communicate with clients from many different cultures.

Responsibilities of the Removal Defense Attorney III include:

- Preparing legal briefs in connection with trial and other legal actions during removal proceedings
- Conducting legal research and interpreting and applying statutes, caselaw, and other legal authorities
- Devising trial strategy and initiating necessary investigation for each case
- Analyzing the facts of each case and identifying appropriate defenses
- Requesting records from various state and federal offices
- Advocating for our clients' release from immigration custody

In addition to strong legal research and writing abilities and excellent oral advocacy skills, the ideal candidate will possess:

- Familiarity with related consequences, remedies, and resources including, but not limited to: removal proceedings, and various forms of affirmative and defensive immigration relief such as adjustment of status, DACA, U-visas, asylum, naturalization applications and Special Immigrant Juvenile Status

- The ability to establish and maintain effective working relationships with other Public Defender staff, department representatives, county officials, court officials, and the public
- An understanding and acceptance of differences in human behavior, and cultural, ethnic, and economic backgrounds
- Working knowledge of Word, Excel, and similar programs
- Significant experience practicing immigration law in immigration courts, U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services, and experience in county courts is highly desired

EXTRA-HELP EMPLOYMENT

Extra-help employees relieve or augment permanent staff. Temporary, extra-help employees are not in the classified civil service and do not have property rights to permanently allocated positions. In addition, they do not receive most employee benefits such as long-term disability insurance coverage; accrual of vacation; participation in the County retirement program; or eligibility to take promotional examinations. Temporary, extra-help employees are limited in their employment to a maximum of one calendar year. These employees must be off of work for three months before they can be re-employed on an extra help basis. Extra-help employees who meet the eligibility requirements may qualify for a County contribution toward medical coverage.

This bilingual position requires English and Spanish skills at the fluent (reading, writing, and conversational) level. Applicants who wish to be considered for these fluent bilingual positions must indicate their level of skill in the required supplemental questionnaire. An examination will be conducted prior to employment in a bilingual position to confirm the level of skill in this area. Bilingual premium pay is $1.50/hour for fluent bilingual skills.

This recruitment is being conducted to fill a temporary, extra-help fluent Bilingual Removal Defense Attorney III (English/Spanish) position in the Public Defender's Office. This employment list may also be used to fill future extra-help positions as they occur during the active status of this list. The Civil Service title for this recruitment is Deputy Public Defender III.

*Salary is negotiable within the established range.

APPLICATION SUBMISSIONS REQUIRE THE SUPPLEMENTAL QUESTIONNAIRE BE COMPLETED.

Minimum Qualifications

Professional License: Current active membership in the State Bar of California.
Experience: Any combination of training and experience, which would provide the opportunity to acquire the knowledge and abilities listed. Normally, two years of legal experience practicing criminal law as a licensed attorney, including one year of experience comparable to the level of Deputy Public Defender II; or equivalent experience with another defense agency would provide such opportunity.
License: Possession of a valid driver's license at the appropriate level including special endorsements, as required by the State of California, may be required depending upon assignment to perform the essential job functions of the position.

Knowledge, Skills, and Abilities

Considerable knowledge of: the duties, powers, limitations, and authorities of the Office of the Public Defender; the principles of criminal law, principles of trial procedure and rules of evidence; legal research methods and judicial procedures; statutory and constitutional laws of the State of California.
Ability to: research, analyze and apply legal principles, facts, evidence and precedents to legal problems; consistently prepare and present statements of law, fact and argument clearly, logically and persuasively in written and oral form in legal matters; establish and maintain effective working relations with other staff members, departmental representatives, county officials, the courts, law enforcement agency officials, and the general public; understand and accept differences in human behavior, and cultural and ethnic backgrounds.

Selection Procedure & Some Helpful Tips When Applying

- Your application information and your responses to the supplemental questions are evaluated and taken into consideration throughout the entire selection process.
- You should list all employers and positions held within the last ten years in the work history section of your application. Be as thorough as possible when responding to the supplemental questions.
- You may include history beyond ten years if related to the position for which you are applying. If you held multiple positions with one employer, list out each position separately.
- Failure to follow these instructions may impact your competitiveness in this process or may result in disqualification.
